Novembering Right

We began our celebration of remembering our dearly departed this month by attending Mass on Nov. 1 –All Saints Day, a holy day. The Saints are like the fans in the stadium, cheering us on to do our best in “running the race” of this life. They had conversion experiences in which they gave their lives over to God. They are in Heaven, enjoying communion with God.

The Mass offered on Nov. 2 commemorated All Souls, those Christians who died, but whose souls need the sanctification of Purgatory. As we pray for them, they become more ready for the glory of God in Heaven.

We are free to inscribe into the book of remembrance the names of our loved ones who have passed from this world into the next. It can be found on the vigil table with the list of those in our parish who have passed away within the year.

Pray throughout the month for those you don't know, whose lives are lost due to war, violence and poverty. Later on this month it will make our celebration of Thanksgiving more meaningful.

We will close the Liturgical year with the Feast of Christ the King of the Universe. This is traditionally the last Sunday of November. It celebrates Jesus' kingly authority. In Matthew's Gospel (28:18), we read that after His resurrection, but before His ascension to Heaven, that He appeared to the disciples in Galilee. He told them, "All power in Heaven and on Earth has been given to me." This means that His Kingdom is vast! His power is uncontainable. His reign will end "...when He has put all enemies under His feet." (1Cor. 15:25)

When is the end of the age? That is known only to the Father. However, God is counting on us to build that Kingdom. He desires none of us to be lost. He wants to be in a relationship so close to us that He humbles Himself to be contained in the form of bread and wine, which when consecrated becomes Him in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

How honored we are to receive Him, strengthening us and all other sons and daughters! How honored, too, are we to receive as His disciples the great commission: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matt. 28: 19-20) (Emphasis added.)

Can He count on us?

Patty

Our Lady of the Lakes Mission Statement

With Mary as our model, Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Community seeks to be a welcoming parish. Recognizing that we are made up of diverse rural communities, we strive to live as members of the one Body of Christ, ministering to each other, and working together to nurture our God given talents in order to reach out to others in a caring and compassionate manner that witnesses to our fervent love for God.

Reading I: Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom seeks those who seek her.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

The dead will participate in Jesus' return.

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

Readiness is essential for the end time.

In the parable of the ten brides maids (sometimes called the ten virgins), Jesus tells the story of a group of bridesmaids who are waiting for the groom to return so the wedding celebration can take place. These "waiting parables" are about the "church age," the time we live in now, when we wait for the groom Christ, to return for his bride, the Church.

Adults: What regular disciplines can we practice to make sure that we stay spiritually awake.

Children: What can you do to make sure Jesus knows you.

Looking AheadReading I: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

Her value is far beyond pearls.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 5: 1-6

For that day will overtake you like a thief.

Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

Well done, my good and faithful servant.

The Scripture readings the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us of our serious responsibilities as disciples, and they invite us to assess what we must do with our own lives to hear the Master say to us, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." What investments might we make in order to further the work of the Kingdom? Prayerfully consider where and how God might be inviting you to some new fruitfulness in your life.

Magnificat Rochester (a ministry to Catholic Women) invites all women to a breakfast on Saturday, December 2; seating at 8:30am. - program starts at 9:30am and ends at 12 Noon at the Ramada Plaza Inn Airport, at 911 Brooks Ave. Confessions will be heard at 8am and at the end of the program. Our speaker is Jeanne Walker. She is a mother, grandmother and widow who has experienced death of her loved ones, divorce and physical pain. She has survived tragedy as a child and an adult and is learning how God has loved and protected her all along and always will. Come hear her story and be inspired to live a life that is truly free and filled with hope. Reservations $20; $22 after Nov. 25th: Student $12; Clergy & Religious complimentary. Registration required. Mail check to: Magnificat Rochester, PO Box 24787, Rochester NY, 14624; include name, address, phone number & email, or go to www.MagnificatRochester.org. For more info call Kathy Murty at 436-1284, or email: MagnificatRochester@frontier.com

Eucharist Minister Training

There will be a final Eucharist Minister training at St. Michael's Church in the Hall, Monday November 20 at 6pm for those in OLOL who were unable to make the previous training. Fr. Felician will conduct the program which will last 50 minutes. No need to register just show up.

Facilities & Maintenance Collection

In trying to maintain and fund major projects for all the Our Lady of the Lakes facilities, this fund was created to take care the normal daily, monthly and yearly maintenance. It will also help in the unforeseen issues that may arise as our buildings continue to age. Most important are the capital projects that may be planned in the future. Please be generous when we take up this collection the weekend of November 18th & 19th.

OLOL Pastoral Council

The OLOL Pastoral Council will be meeting Monday, November 20th, at 7PM down in St. Michael's Church Hall.

Singing Christmas Eve at St. Michael's

Join the choir on Christmas Eve at St. Michael's. Rehearsals are on Tuesdays, 6:30-8pm, until December 19th in St. Michael's Church. The choir sings Christmas Carols & Anthems prior to Mass, and leads singing during the Liturgy. Interested contact Rose Jensen at rajsings2u@aol.com.

Psalms of Praise and Thanksgiving

The Thanksgiving holiday is an excellent time to rediscover the psalms of praise and thanksgiving. When you find a quiet moment, sit and relax with your bible. Think of a time when awe and gratitude overwhelmed you. Maybe it was a sunrise, or children playing in a park, an inspirational hymn at Mass, a family gathering, or a walk in the woods. Remember how you appreciated that special moment. Then, open your bible to one of the psalms of thanksgiving and recite it to yourself, like Psalm 118 for instance:  Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.  Listen to the words. Close your eyes. Let the psalm speak to you. Other psalms of praise and thanksgiving you might consider include psalms 92, 95, 98, 100, 103, 104, 105, 107, 111, 117, 145, and 147.  Whatever psalm you choose for that quiet moment, thank God for that special time of awe as well as all the good things in your life, and praise God for his glorious deeds.*

Come Pray With Mary

Celebrating the 29th Year of gathering together for the Rosary at St. Michael's Chapel. Twenty nine years of faithful prayer devoted to Our Blessed Mother's intercession on our behalf. The Rosary Group meets each Monday from 4-5pm. We offer prayers for peace, for our priests, an end to abortion, and our own special intentions.

Community Thanksgiving Dinner

The St. Januarius' Community Thanksgiving Dinner will be held THIS Sunday November 12 from 3:30-5:30pm. Come help by bringing food such as cooked turkeys, hot vegetable dishes, cold salads, rolls and of course DESSERT! Monetary donations are also accepted. We also need your help with set up, serving and clean up. Join us TODAY..

Our Next Meeting

OLOL Social Ministry is meeting Saturday, November 18th, from 10-11:30am at the Branchport Library. We will be discussing plans for our Thanksgiving and Christmas projects as well as a discussion on right to life. We will also continue discussions on our new initiatives on immigration and human trafficking.

From Your Heart to Theirs..

Warm Hands warm hearts ...warm feet... Baskets/boxes are near the doors of your worship site for collection of gloves mittens hats scarves and socks for our homeless brothers and sisters. New or gently used are most welcomed! We just learned dry socks are the most requested item in homeless shelters! Can you check your sock drawer and donate a pair or two? Empty coffee cans are also needed for personal hygiene kits. This warm hands/ heart/ feet collection will run thru Sunday, November 19th.

Have an Overabundance of Warm Clothing?

Consider donating to the Once Again Shop in Penn Yan, The Open Closet in Naples and The St. Pauly Collection Box in the parking lot at St. Theresa's. The Once Again Shop and The St. Pauly Box also take clean shoes, sneakers, belts, purses, linens, blankets & drapes to distribute to local people throughout OLOL as well as in other U.S. areas.

Stewards Give Thanks

Every November, the United States celebrates a great national holiday: Thanksgiving. Although the origins of the U.S. festivity are some what historically murky, it's evident that some of the earliest immigrants to America celebrated this day as an expression of gratitude to God for bringing a healthy harvest which would ensure their colony's survival through the winter. Over the years, Thanksgiving in the U.S. has become a national expression of gratitude, but sometimes it veers into the neighborhood of cliché, and often it strays away from the source of our gifts. In some circles, it's unfashionable to mention that it is God, the source of life and goodness, to whom we owe our deep, humble sense of appreciation. The faith of the Christian steward, on the other hand, proclaims gratitude to God as its wellspring and cornerstone. The Christian steward is aware of thankfulness to God twelve months of the year, not just in November, and the steward knows, as St. Ignatius of Loyola taught us, that we "find God in all things." Therefore, we find reason to thank God in all things. We also thank God for the embarrassing moments of our lives, for the disappointments, the sorrows, even the mistakes, because we know that God was present in each of those moments, ready to teach us and to guide us. The Christian steward can go deep in prayer and thank God for lessons learned in times of trouble as well as times of bounty. Gratitude, for the Christian steward, is not just rendered in times of plenty, but in times of sadness and deprivation. The God of all is present in all situations. Perhaps the challenge for stewards during November is to be a source of reminder to those around them that thanksgiving is a fundamental lifetime habit, rendered to the God of mercy and plenty.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Margaret of Scotland sailed to Scotland from her native England to escape the king who conquered their land. She married Malcolm and became Queen.

She provided good advice and made a good ruler much better thru her wisdom. She had new churches built, obtained more teachers and corrected evil practices.
