“The greatest among you must be your servant.” Mt.23.13

This Sunday's gospel repeats the all-too-familiar words “Whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.”

We sometimes have some strange definitions of the words “proud” and “humble.” For many, “humble” might mean submitting to others, or even to disliking oneself but if you google “humility,” you can find some pretty good quotations from famous people , e.g. “A great man (we should add “woman”) is always willing to be little.” Ralph Waldo Emerson.

When Jesus tells his followers to be humble, he is not saying that they should hide their talents, but to be grateful for them. He is not telling them they should think less of themselves, but maybe to be thinking of themselves less often. And he is telling them not to fret when their talents are not recognized, and not to complain when no one praises them for the good they have done. Humility is the nearly impossible task of being more aware of our own failings than we are with those of others.

Finally, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, undoubtedly one of the most humble, compassionate public figures we have had the gift of knowing, wrote these words about humility.

These are a few of the ways we can practice humility:

To speak as little as possible of one's self.

To mind one's own business.

To accept contradictions and correction cheerfully.

To pass over the mistakes of others.

To accept insults and injuries.

To accept being slighted, forgotten and even disliked.

To be kind and gentle even under provocation.

Never to stand on one's dignity.

To choose always the hardest.”

Praised be Jesus Christ ! Fr.Felicjan

Our Lady of the Lakes Mission Statement

With Mary as our model, Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Community seeks to be a welcoming parish. Recognizing that we are made up of diverse rural communities, we strive to live as members of the one Body of Christ, ministering to each other, and working together to nurture our God given talents in order to reach out to others in a caring and compassionate manner that witnesses to our fervent love for God.

Reading I: Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10

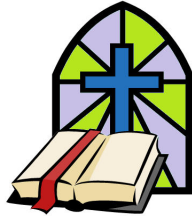

Honor God with your best gifts. Be faithful one to another.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13

God's Word is at work in believers.

Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12

Seek God's honor, not your own honor.

In today's Gospel reading Jesus makes it clear that the Lord prefers a humble person to a proud person; a person who makes the servant hood of Jesus of Nazareth their standard of living. It is not popular to be looked upon as a servant. Christian stewards realize that the biggest reason to embrace a servant's heart is the fact that it reflects the heart of Jesus. They understand that if they maintain a humble servant like attitude the Lord will lift them up. He sees their hearts, loves their humility and rewards them for living a life pleasing to him.

Adults: Do you practice what you preach?

Children: How can you make the light of Christ shine through your life?

Looking Ahead

Reading I: Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom seeks those who seek her.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

The dead will participate in Jesus' return.

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

Readiness is essential for the end time.

An Autumn Prayer

God, I see the cycle of the seasons. Summer ends and runs into fall, which gives way to LONG winter, and then spring. Autumn is a season of change - and it reminds me that I am changing too. Things I used to need I may need no longer. Help me throw off those things that hold me down, so I might become something new. This is a time when there is an explosion of color, and then it starts to get cold again. This is part of life. Help me understand I cannot live in summer forever. Until I find that eternal summer in you! I cannot be growing like a garden in the spring all the time. I am made to change and this season is part of it. Let me welcome the change. Let me see the beauty of your earth as it prepares to hibernate in the wintertime. Let me embrace this time of change and become something new. Amen.

Reconciliation Prep

Children and parents will meet Sunday, November 5th from 1-3 PM in the Church Hall at St. Michael's.

Hands of Christ nominations... are due to Patty Larzelere by Wednesday, November 8th. Thank you for encouraging the youth you know to attend Mass and offer their talents to the parish, school and community.

National Vocation Awareness Week Nov.5-11

We are all called to holiness! Take this opportunity to highlight some of the ways we live a life of holiness - married, single, consecrated, and ordained. The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Vocations Awareness Week, November 5-11, 2017. This annual event is a special time for parishes in the United States to actively foster and pray for a culture of vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. Cardinal Joseph Tobin, the Chair of the US Bishops' Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life, and Vocations, reminds us that each of us in the Church has a key role to play in the witness of our vocation in ordinary circumstances, "As we go about our everyday life and most especially this week, we must keep vocations in our prayers, while, at the same time, being a mindful witness with our own vocation. We may never know how our lives may have an impact on someone else's story. Simply living out our call as disciples of Jesus Christ fully and joyfully in the world bears witness to the love of Christ as He generously bestows on each of us our own personal call."

How We Benefit by Giving to the CMA

We each have been given different gifts. We can give of our time, talents, and treasure in whatever way we are able. This is a good Christian steward. Some may ask how we benefit here from the CMA. We must understand that it is not about getting every dollar we give back. Part of being good stewards is to give freely without a return. We benefit from the diocese in liturgy, RCIA, religious education and all sacramental preparations. As well as maintaining our computers and e-mail systems.

Advent 2017

Beginning the Church's liturgical year, Advent (from, "ad-venire" in Latin or "to come to") is the season encompassing the 4 Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the celebration of Christmas. The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. The final days of Advent, from December 17 to the 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord. Advent devotions including the Advent wreath, remind us of the meaning of the season. Check out the 2017 Advent Calendar by going to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishop's web page <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-year/advent/index.cfm>.

Want to pitch in the day of?...we also need help with set up, serving and clean up. Check for the sign-up sheet in the back of church or call Andy and Marianna Beigel at 585-374-6933.

Children's Stewardship

Often we receive and in a spirit of gratitude give. Even nature has the ongoing cycle of rain descending to water the atmosphere. In Scripture we read of the biblical characters offering their first fruits to God. All this depicts a vibrant and ongoing process. Helping children understand "stewardship" can be part of this ongoing process. They can be reminded to realize their blessings, acknowledge God's gifts to them and express thanks by a proportionate giving of what is theirs. They become conscious of God's goodness to them and their reverent respect.
