Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Community

Life along on the Journey

Each one of us is journeying. We came from God. Eventually, He wants us to return to that Heavenly home where there is no more sorrow or pain, only everlasting joy.

But there is the earthly journey. God has a plan for each of us. He wants the very best for us. He gives us gifts and talents and wants us to use them. He gives us rules for our safety (The 10 Commandments, which Jesus said can be summed up into just two: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as you love yourself." Mark:12:30-31)

Additionally, Jesus taught us about the Kingdom of God, how important it is to love, even when others are hard to love; to forgive and be forgiven; to go after the lost sheep; to practice The Beatitudes, The Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy and to pray, to be in relationship with Him so that we can be His disciples.

Jesus was the only perfect person. As His disciples, we show Him to others in our words, thoughts and actions. In our humanity we sometimes succumb to temptation and fall into sin. Whenever we are unkind, uncaring or selfish, or not obeying His commands, we are sinners.

As the liturgical (public worship) nears, drawing to an end with the Feast of Christ the King of the Universe, let us continue to develop our life in God. Use the acronym, ACTS (Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving and Supplication), to guide your prayer life. Let us pour our hearts out to God. We will need to listen for His answer. It may or may not be an audible voice. It may be a revelation, a prompting of the Holy Spirit, or revealed in conversation with others. Let us examine our consciences daily. Let us seek the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Penance, if we find that we have not been very Christ-like. The grace of the sacraments are powerful and life changing.

And those sins? If we confess them and seek to change, God will turn around our faults to show His love, mercy and glory.

Join me?

Patty, a sinner

Nov 11th, 2018 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction

No matter how many times we say we trust in the Lord, we often live as if we are in charge of our own lives and dependent only on our own talents. We are reminded today that not only are we called to live in utter surrender and dependence on our Lord, but we are to give from our very poverty to those who are in need. We must trust God will provide for us as we empty ourselves to care for the poor and the oppressed. It is a risky way to live but it is the life of faith and trust to which we are called.

Reading I: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah the prophet went Zarephath

Reading II: Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ offered himself on our behalf to take away our sins

Gospel Mark 12:38-44

Jesus observes the poor widow who contributed all she had

This month we are drawing to the end of our liturgical (public gathering) year. It is fitting that we honor Veterans, both living and dead, for their sacrifices for our freedoms. It is fitting that we pray for migrants and immigrants who are fleeing violence and poverty in search of a better life, like the first Pilgrims. It is fitting we remember this year's deceased parishioners and our own beloved deceased family and friends. It is appropriate that when we come together at Mass that we celebrate the Eucharist, a word that means Thanksgiving. Are we truly thankful that Jesus, the King of the Universe, loves us so much that He invites us to take him into ourselves so that He can strengthen us to be His disciples, bread for others? After you receive remember to pray in Thanksgiving for such a loving, generous God. Will we show Him to others?

Victims of abuse should always report to the civil authorities. To report a case of possible sexual abuse and to receive help and guidance from the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rochester, victims are encouraged to contact the victims' assistance coordinator:

It would be wonderful to see some people there who haven't been able to come in the past. New thoughts and ideas are always welcome!
