The journey begins with seeing the star: a light in the midst of darkness, a reason for hope in the wake of devastation, a realization that good is possible.

With courage, you follow that star wherever it leads. You'll have to negotiate dangerous terrain. You'll endure oppressive heat and numbing cold. You'll lose your way and have to recalibrate your route — if you're wise and humble enough, you'll seek the help of sage, more experienced travelers.

At more than one point, you'll give up. You'll want to turn around and go back to where you felt safe and comfortable — if unfulfilled. But, if the star is the right star, you'll keep going. You'll stay focused on the star.

And eventually the star will set over the place and time you are meant to be: the lost college student discovers his life's work, the discouraged medical worker finds the path of compassion and purpose that keeps her going, the terrified couple works through their fears and feelings of inadequacy to welcome their first child. Every one has their own story of such a "star."

The Spirit of God guides us, directs us, nudges us, picks us up, pushes us toward the star.

And eventually, if we persevere with faith and trust in that Spirit, we come to Epiphany.

Life is filled with all kinds of "epiphanies" of finding God in our own Bethlehems and Jerusalems. The understanding and support of family and friends, the wisdom and insight of the prophets of justice and peace in our lives, the forgiveness and mercy we enable and accept are all "stars" God illuminates in our skies to discover his loving presence in our lives. The star of Epiphany challenges us to see our own lives in the "extraordinary" light of God. In the new year before us, may our hearts and spirits behold the "star" that leads us to the Epiphany of "Emmanuel" — God in our midst.

Fr. Leo

Tolkien Fans: Did you know that he was a devout Catholic? About 7 years ago, a poem he wrote called, “Noel” was discovered in a magazine of Our Lady's School in Oxford, England.

Read it here: <http://tolkiengateway.net/wiki/Noel> and enjoy these reflection questions:

- ◆ How does the world differ in the beginning and the end of the poem?
- ◆ Can you relate to the description of winter at the beginning of the poem? What does it remind you of?
- ◆ Tolkien mentions bells many times in the poem. When and why have you heard bells during the Christmas season?
- ◆ What kind of song do you imagine Mary singing to her son in this poem?
- ◆ What memories of laughter and light do you have of Christmas?

The Work of Christmas Begins...

“When the song of the angels is stilled,
 when the star in the sky is gone,
 when the kings and princes are home,
 when the shepherds are back with the flocks,
 then the work of Christmas begins:
 to find the lost, to heal those broken in spirit,
 to feed the hungry, to release the oppressed,
 to rebuild the nations,
 to bring peace among all peoples,
 to make a little music with the heart...
 And to radiate the Light of Christ,
 every day, in every way, in all that we do and in all that we say.

Then the work of Christmas begins.”

From the Grapevine Express:

Covid-19 Vaccine Information for Senior Medicare patrol:

We know that Covid-19 vaccine fraud will move very quickly, very soon, and will take many forms. Scammers rapidly alter their tactics and adapt their schemes to the changing landscape, and we anticipate that they will leverage the pending Covid-19 vaccine to prey on unsuspecting beneficiaries. At this point, it is essential that we alert the public of likely schemes and provide them with information on how they can protect themselves.

- ◆ You likely will not need to pay anything out of pocket to get the vaccine during this public health emergency.
- ◆ You cannot pay to put your name on a list to get the vaccine.
- ◆ No one from Medicare or the Health Department will contact you.
- ◆ No one from a vaccine distribution site or health care payer, like a private insurance company, will call you asking for your Social Security number or your credit card or bank account information to sign you up to get the vaccine.

Beware of providers offering other products, treatments, or medicines to prevent the virus. Check with you local health care provider before paying for or receiving any Covid-19 related treatment.

If you get a call, text, email - or even someone knocking on your door - claiming that they can get you early access to the vaccine, STOP!!!

That is a scam.
