Holy Week

The most important week of the Year

I came to the United States in 2009. Little by little I started not only to know English, but also the American culture. All of its traditions were new for me. Thanksgiving, Christmas, St. Patrick's Day, Easter, the Fourth of July, etc. Once I was chatting with a friend, and he asked me how the celebration of Holy Week in the United States was. Immediately, I started to remember the way that we celebrated Holy Week in Colombia, and of course, it was very different. Colombia has a lot processions, a lot of people, activities for children, youth, and adults. Long lines of people waiting for their turn to go to the sacrament of Reconciliation, long ceremonies (people do not care for time), and even the Easter Vigil was a long celebration (around 4 hours). Of course, all of these flashbacks happened in a second. I described the way how Americans celebrate the Holy Week, which of course was very different. My friend said to me that Holy Week in America was "bored." I laughed and explained that not because Holy week in America was very different, it was not boring.

I believe that even though there are not the same expressions of faith during the most important week of the year for all Christian people, the Americans have wonderful expressions of faith because they understand the real importance of this week (At least, I want to believe so).

We praise the Lord on Palm Sunday and recognize Jesus not only as the King of the Jews, but also as the King of the Universe. He is the King of our lives. We praise Him with palms, saying "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest" (Matthew 21:9).

On Holy Thursday, we celebrate the sacrament of Love, the Eucharist. At the Last Supper, Our Lord Jesus Christ wanted to stay with us in the bread and wine. We need to say to the Lord "thank you" for all the wonderful gifts that the Lord gave us in this Supper.

On Good Friday, Jesus died for us on the Cross. He cleaned us from our sins through His sacrifice because by the Holy Cross, He has redeemed the world. We call this day "Good" not because it was good to see a man died on a Cross, but because the act of Jesus through His death, He restored our friendship with God.

On Easter vigil, the Christians rejoice at the triumphant Resurrection of the Lord. St. Paul says, "If Christ has not been raised, then empty [too] is our preaching; empty, too, your faith" (1 Cor. 15, 14). Easter Vigil is the center of our faith. The resurrection of Christ gave us hope and the possibility to go to the house of our Heavenly Father.

Even though the way of how the Christians celebrate the Holy Week is different, we have the same spirit. The Lord Jesus saved all of us regardless of our traditions, nationality, language, or culture. We commemorate His passion, death, and resurrection. We live these sacred mysteries with faith and love. We say thank you to the Lord for His sacrifice on the Cross and His resurrection from the death.

WE JOURNEY THROUGH LENT WITH CRS RICE BOWL:

SERVING THE SUFFERING CHRIST As we enter Holy Week and celebrate Palm Sunday, let's reflect on how our Lord suffered from our indifference: those who proclaimed him king of Jerusalem were the same who called to crucify him. We recognize we are all one human family. Are we contributing to the suffering of our sisters and brothers with our indifference to their realities? How does our faith inspire us to care for them and share the gifts that God has bestowed on us? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

MAKING A LAUNDRY LIST: St. Michael's needs volunteers to do the "linens" (i.e. Purificators & finger towels) used at Mass. There are not as many as when the Cup could be offered for Holy Communion but Fr. Jorge has been doing them for the past few months & it's time that we seek volunteers. If you have done it before, I would invite you to sign up on the volunteer form in the sacristy. If you have not done them, before please call the parish office & what has to be done will be explained. Thank you for your help. Fr. Leo
