May

May is a month that the Catholic Church has consecrated to our mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. People pray the rosary, crown Mary, or have a personal and special devotion to the mother of God. Also, we celebrate our Mother's Day, and ask to Mary, our heavenly mother, to intercede not only for our mothers, but for all mothers in the world. The Blessed Virgin Mary has been present in human history through her different apparitions. Our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lady of the Rosary, Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of the Mount Carmel, Our Lady of the Snow, Our Lady of the Milk, Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, Our Lady of Graces, Our Lady of La Salette, Our Lady of Knock, Our Lady of the Good Event, Our Lady of Laus, Our Lady of Good Help, Our Lady of Pontmain, Our Lady of Hope, Our Lady of Gietrzwald, etc., are some of the apparitions of our Blessed Virgin throughout the world. They are manifestations of God's love to us regardless the culture, nationality, language, or race. For this reason, this month is consecrated to Mary, so that all human-kind can praise the Lord through the presence of our Blessed Mother.

In addition, May is not only a month consecrated exclusively to our mother. May 1st is the day of St. Joseph, the worker. St. Joseph, as all of us know, is the spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. He was always protecting her, and the child Jesus in Nazareth. With this celebration of St. Joseph, the worker, we are praying for all the workers around the world, and for their dignity as human beings. Let us pray for all the workers have a fair wage and all the benefits that they need. Let us pray also for many people who lost their jobs because of this pandemic or any another reason. Let us pray for many men and women who have not found any job. Let us consecrate these people and ourselves to St. Joseph, the worker, so we can have a quality life with fair wages and can have a life according to the human dignity that God gave us.

Let us pray:

"O Glorious Saint Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work in a spirit of penance for the expiation of my many sins; to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations; to work with thankfulness and joy, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God; to work with order, peace, moderation, and patience, never shrinking from weariness and trials; to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, keeping unceasingly before my eyes death and the account that I must give of time lost, talents unused, good omitted, and vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God.

All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after thy example, O Patriarch, Saint Joseph. Such shall be my watch-word in life and in death.

Amen." – Pope St. Pius X

May the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph, the worker, be with each one of us.

God bless you!

HOLY HOUR

“Lord, when did we see You... in prison?” Matthew 25:39
“Today we state clearly that the death penalty is inadmissible, and the Church is firmly committed to calling for its abolition worldwide.” - Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti

In July 2019, capital punishment in federal cases was resumed in the U.S. after a 16 year hiatus, At the very heart of Catholic teaching is reverence for the inviolable dignity of the human being and the belief that every person, made in the image and likeness of God, is given the opportunity for redemption. This includes those who have cause great harm. Saint Pope John Paul II in his encyclical The Gospel of Life, emphatically proclaimed, “Not even a murderer loses his personal dignity.” (EV, 9) Pointing out that the death penalty affects people of color and people in poverty most often, Fr. Kevin McKenna, rector of Sacred Heart Cathedral in Rochester, in his Concise Guide to Catholic Social Teaching, writes, “In the conditions of contemporary American Society, the legitimate purposes of punishment do not justify the imposition of the death penalty. There are serious considerations which should prompt Christians and all Americans to support the abolition of capital punishment.”

This week, please contact the White House at 1-202-456-1111 or www.whitehouse.gov/contact to thank President Biden for his public opposition to capital punishment and to ask him to

- ◆ Declare an official moratorium on executions at the federal level
- ◆ Commute the sentences of all those currently on the federal death row
- ◆ Advocate to end the death penalty in law with Congress and the states

God makes no Distinctions

On February 27, 2006, Pope Benedict XVI said the following in a talk to the Pontifical Academy for Life:

"The sacred books, in fact, set out to show God's love for every human being even before he has been formed in his mother's womb. "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you" (Jer 1: 5), God said to the Prophet Jeremiah. And the Psalmist recognizes with gratitude: "You did form my inward parts, you did knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for you are fearful and wonderful. Wonderful are your works! You know me right well" (Ps 139[138]: 13-14).

These words acquire their full, rich meaning when one thinks that God intervenes directly in the creation of the soul of every new human being.

God's love does not differentiate between the newly conceived infant still in his or her mother's womb and the child or young person, or the adult and the elderly person. God does not distinguish between them because he sees an impression of his own image and likeness (Gn 1: 26) in each one.

He makes no distinctions because he perceives in all of them a reflection of the face of his Only-begotten Son, whom "he chose... before the foundation of the world.... He destined us in love to be his sons... according to the purpose of his will" (Eph 1: 4-6)."

The Archdiocese of NY has created an informative video about the impacts of the proposed Equality Act.

Watch it here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZxWDY7EXh54> Once you are informed, please write your Federal representatives to advocate against the injustices the Act will have upon vulnerable youth, churches, schools, shelters and businesses. On the local level, our regional Justice, Peace & Life Coordinator, Laurie Konwinski, also asks us to advocate for pregnancy help centers, like Birthright. The bill before our State houses would enable the Health Commissioner to subpoena pro-life centers and force them to produce an overwhelming volume of data and reports. The pre-determined outcome of the "study" is to find the centers "limited" because they do not provide abortion. Urge our lawmakers to oppose this unnecessary and dangerous bill. Take action here: <https://www.nyscatholic.org/nys-catholic-conference-action-center/?vvsrsrc=%2fCampaigns%2f84076%2fRespond>

When is an experiment a success and when is it a failure? Are we willing to use our bodies -- gifts from God and temples of the Holy Spirit -- in that pursuit? Are we willing to risk damage to our communities from increased problems caused by addictive substances?

These are questions that surround the legalization of recreational marijuana. Would you be willing to share a short, factual, easy-to-read presentation created by the Yates Substance Abuse Coalition (YSAC) with others? Facts are drawn from states that have already legalized recreational marijuana. If yes, please go to YSAC's website, <https://yatessac.weebly.com/> and click on contact. Thank you.

Starting Anew: Annual Diocesan Social Ministry Conference

All parishioners are invited to join Catholics from around the diocese on Thursday May 6 from 9:00am-12:00pm for the annual diocesan social ministry conference, happening on Zoom-- so you don't even have to travel to attend. It's an opportunity to learn and find new inspiration for our work of creating a more just and peaceful world.

- Reflect on Pope Francis' recent encyclical, Fratelli Tutti: On Fraternity and Social Friendship.
- Connect with other social ministry volunteers and with great Catholic organizations to strengthen your parish ministries
- Join in interactive workshops on issues of Catholic Social Teaching like: Racism—Life Issues—Dignity of Work—Creation Care.

Registration is free but required; go to www.dor.org/conference/ to sign up, by Tuesday May 4.
