Hidden Gems In the Old Testament

Today's first reading comes from the Book of Wisdom. Sometimes this book is called the Wisdom of Solomon. The Book of Wisdom is one of seven books that are included in the Catholic and Orthodox Bibles but not in the Protestant or Jewish Bibles. These seven books are Tobit, Judith, Baruch, the Book of Wisdom, Sirach (as called Ecclesiasticus), and First and Second Maccabees. Collectively these seven books are called the deuterocanonical books by Catholics and the Apocrypha by Protestants. The reason that these seven books are not included in the Jewish Bible is complex and debated, but much of the reason has to do with the fact that these seven books were written in Greek and not in Hebrew. Before I converted to Catholicism, I was unfamiliar with these books. Today, I view these books as hidden gems that have much to teach us.

Today's first reading is a good example of how these books contribute to our faith. We know the story of Adam and Eve being tempted by the devil in the garden. Unfortunately, the book of Genesis never tells why the devil even bothered to tempt Adam and Eve in the first place. However, the Book of Wisdom does explain why. The Book of Wisdom points out that it was out of envy that the devil tempted Adam and Eve. Why? The answer is simple. As the Book of Wisdom tells us, the devil was envious that Adam and Eve were made in the image and likeness of God. Further, this passage from the Book of Wisdom reminds us that we were created for immortality. It was by the envy of the devil, and not God's design, that death entered into the world. As the Book of Wisdom states, "God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living." Therefore, it is not too surprising that the Catechism of the Catholic Church states in paragraph 1008 that

"...Even though man's nature is mortal, God has destined him not to die. Death was therefore contrary to the plans of God the Creator and entered the world as a consequence of sin 'Bodily death from which man would have been immune had he not sinned' is thus 'the last enemy' of man left to be conquered."

All of these details come from the first chapters of the Book of Wisdom. The remainder of the book, as well as the other six books, are equally insightful. I'm not certain if anyone writes out "Summer reading lists" anymore, but if you do, see if you can find your way to one of these seven books. I suspect that once you read one, you might find yourself reading the others. Happy reading!

This is not a goodbye

It has been 3 wonderful years. Since I arrived in June 2018, we have been living important moments: the celebration of the Eucharists, the Sacraments, the Holy Hour, The Stations of the Cross, RCIA, and so on; also, we have been through many challenges, such as this pandemic that we are still living.

This is why I want to say, "Thank you of all you." Thank you for having me in OLOL. Thank you to Fr. Leo who taught me many valuable lessons, not only in my pastoral ministry, but also in my life as a priest, who wants always to serve the Lord and the Church. Thank all of you for teaching me many important lessons for my spiritual life, vocation, and priestly ministry. Thank you for those moments where we laugh together. Thank you for prayers and support during this difficult time that all of us are living during this pandemic. Thank you for all the manifestation of love and kindness. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you very much for everything. I don't have enough words to express my gratitude to each one of you in the different communities at St. Michael, St. Januarius, and St. Patrick.

Also, I want to say, "I'm sorry." I want to apologize if I did something wrong that could hurt you. It was not my intention. I am still in the way to learn many things, and during this learning, I made mistakes.

Please, continue to pray for me. I need really your prayers in this new challenge in my life. Besides, continue to pray for Fr. Leo and all the staff of OLOL. They need your support and prayers. Fr. Leo is a great priest, who wants to reflect the face of Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd.

You are most welcome in my new parochial communities at St. Anthony in Groton, All Saints in Lansing, and Holy Cross in Dryden. Hence, this is not a goodbye, but see you later. I believe we are going to see each other on our journey to God's house.

Once again, thank you very much. I love all of you!

Fr. Jorge Ramirez

As we continue to recover from COVID, it is becoming apparent that the need for Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion are necessary at the St. Michael's weekend Masses.

For this reason I will put up a schedule for at least ONE PERSON to volunteer at each of the Masses. Since deacons will be preaching on 2 weekends one will be at every Mass on those weekends. If a deacon is at the Mass he will bring the Eucharist from the tabernacle to the altar. At that point the Eucharistic Minister should also come into the sanctuary.

I strongly encourage Ministers to sign up ahead of time so there is not a lot of scurrying about trying to determine who will go up. This also means that a Eucharistic Minister is properly disposed to distribute Holy Communion & is dressed appropriately. This means no shorts; no short skirts. One should dress as if one was going to meet Jesus at a reception. I would ask that if you are not properly attired please do not come forward.

Fr. Leo

Ways you can SERVE

Offering Counter Teams Needed

The offering counters are volunteers who assist in providing accurate, consistent, confidential and timely processing of all donations and monetary gifts to the Church.

Offering Counter Teams work in groups of three(3) unrelated people. (i.e. Husband and Wife would be placed on separate teams) Usually the counting work is done immediately after the worship service though it may be set for a later time. Teams serve in a rotating schedule.

These teams count and record the amounts of money and checks and then prepare the deposit slips for delivery to the bank. If this is something that you would be interested in doing, please contact the Parish Office.

St Patrick's worship site is in need of Lectors, and persons to:

1)launder the linens, 2) keep accounting of and ordering of wafers and wine, 3) collection of money and handing off of same to our Priest, 4) replace tea light remembrance candles and eternal candle(1 week candle, next to tabernacle) weekly.

There may be more duties, but these are most in need.

COMMUNION SERVICE LEADERS NEEDED

With the changes in the daily Mass schedule & our continual recovering from COVID, there will be a need for parishioners to lead Communion Services on the days that Mass is not celebrated.

Deacon Tim will do the services at St. Januarius on Mondays & Fridays. Deacon Roger will do the services on Tuesdays & Fridays at St. Michaels. So there is a need for someone to do the Wednesday service at St. Januarius & the Thursday Service at St. Michaels.

There should be perhaps 3 parishioners capable of doing the service at each worship site who would hopefully rotate on each of the open dates.

Leaders have to be Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion & should have gone through reader training. I have asked Deacons Tim & Roger to be responsible to train & update readers 7 Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist.

If you have preformed this ministry before I would ask you to sign up by putting your name into the open schedule spot located at St. Michaels on the sacristy bulletin board or at St. Januarius on the bulletin board outside the chapel.

If you are interested & not presently trained or would like more information on what is required please call the Parish Office & leave you name & contact information & you will be contacted when the deacons have finished their planning.

The Parish wants to continue to stream the Sunday Mass at St. Michael's church, even when the pandemic is over. Therefore, we need several volunteers to help us to stream the Masses.

If you want to help us in this project, please call the parish office 315-536-7459

Without volunteers we will not be able to continue streaming so please consider volunteering to help stream the Mass. Training will be provided; we hope to have at least 6-8 volunteers. Call for more information. 315-536-7459

Consider becoming a Cantor. You could mentor with one of our regular cantors either at the Saturday or Sunday Mass (sit in the choir section and sign along with the cantor) and when you feel ready you could Cantor by yourself. Our organist Connie Gibson, would be happy to work with you and prepare you for this important role.

You would not only be offering your talents to the worship of God but you might discover that you truly enjoy this new endeavor and it will continue throughout your lifetime. Please let us know of your interest by either calling the Parish Office 315-536-7459 or our organist Connie Gibson 315-536-9379. Thank you! The Musicians and Staff at St. Michael's
