The gift of PRESENCE!

Long ago, a good and wise and good king ruled in Persia. He loved his people and wanted to know how they lived. He wanted to know about their hardships. So he dressed himself in the clothes of a peasant and went to the homes of the poor. No one whom he visited suspected that he was their king. One of them was a very poor man who lived in a cellar. The king ate his coarse food with him and cheered him up. Then he left. Later he visited the poor man again and disclosed his identity. The king thought the man would ask for some gift or favour, but he didn't. Instead he said, "You left your palace and your glory to visit me in this dark, dreary place. You ate the coarse food I ate. You brought gladness to my heart! To others you may have given rich gifts. But to me you have given yourself!"

At Christmas we celebrate the king of kings leaving his divine glory and coming to our fallen world to share with us our poverty, misery and pain. It is not a matter of Jesus giving us any particular gift or blessing, it is a matter of him giving us himself. This is the big difference between Jesus and Santa Claus. Santa Claus rides in an open sleigh giving gifts to children who have been good, so long as their houses have got chimneys. Santa leaves his gifts under the Christmas tree and promptly disappears. Christ, on the other hand, doesn't leave a gift and disappear. He comes to stay and live with us. He comes to share our suffering human condition. His very presence is the gift. As the poor man in our story knows, being present with the king is far more satisfying than receiving a gift from him.

When we talk about how the eternal Son of God left his heavenly glory, took on flesh and became a human being like us in all things except sin, we use the word "incarnation." This is the mystery we celebrate at Christmas. It is the mystery of how the eternal Word of God took flesh in the little child of Bethlehem. The passage from Hebrews which we have for today's second reading was probably chosen because of its reference to the incarnation. It talks about "when Christ came into the world" and how "God had prepared a body for him" (Hebrews 10: 5).

Today we find ourselves in the same position as the poor man being visited by his king. Like the poor man our hearts should be full of joy, not in the gifts given, but in the fact that the king has come to be with us, to become one of us. His is the gift of presence.

The Prayer of the Synod

attributed to St. Isidore of Seville

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our heart;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life

And not stray from the way of truth
and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever. Amen.

Thank You,
Pastor

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Part of how we live out our Christianity is contained in

The 5 precepts of the Church (CCC 2041-43):

1. Joyfully and actively come to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days; rest from labor for wages.
2. Seek the healing grace of the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least 1x/year.
3. Receive Jesus in the Eucharist, filling you with its grace, at least 1x/year, especially during the Easter season.
4. Observe the days of fasting and abstinence set forth by the Church.
5. Help to provide for the needs of the Church (through your time, talents and treasure).

Another part of living out our faith is how well we care for one another, especially the poor. All of us may know someone who is “poor in spirit” this time of year – someone who has been hurt due to trauma or rejection.

Yates INSYGHT is offering 2 trainings this month:

“An Introduction to Trauma and its Impact on Individuals, Families, and Communities” (Completed on 12/9. Request the rebroadcast by emailing Patty.)

The second training is, “Implementing and Sustaining a Trauma-Informed Approach in the Communities We Serve” on 12/23. Again, if interested, contact Patty for the Zoom link.

Annually, from 12/17-23, we praise God using the O Antiphons. These praises are part of the official prayer of the Church, the Liturgy of the Hours, aka, the Divine Office. Five times/day (6AM, 9 AM, Noon, 3 PM, 6 PM and 9 PM) selections from the Psalms culminate in a scriptural proclamation.

The O Antiphons are offered at evening prayer, (6 PM) along with Mary’s Magnificat.

We are in need a full-time Finance Director to start immediately. If you know anyone who is interested please refer them to the position description and application process by going to the Diocese of Rochester website: www.dor.org, select employment.

I want to take this opportunity to thank Gary for 17 years of dedicated service as the Finance Director supporting Our Lady of the Lakes parishes and St. Michael’s Elementary School. Gary will be retiring at the end of this year.
